

National Portfolio Day 2017

- WHAT? National Portfolio Day is a college fair of ART colleges!
- WHEN? Friday and Saturday, November 17th & 18th
- WHERE? Washington, D.C. at Washington University's Corcoran School of Art
- WHO? All DSA Visual Arts students & Art History interested in applying to art schools for college.
- Any student interested in going on the trip must:
- (1) Be currently enrolled in an art class or art history class at DSA
  - (2) Have at least 10-15 artworks approved (by teacher) to show school representatives, or be enrolled in an art history class.
- WHY ? Students show work directly to representatives from many of the country's major art schools and art programs to get specific feedback before applying to the school. Art History students will participate in chaperoned museum tours.
- Cost? $190 per student (If you/your family can pay more, that will help with support of students who may not be able to pay the full amount)

MAJOR DUE DATES :

October 6th $95 non-refundable deposit due.
November 3rd $95 balance is due.

The Fee: $190 covers bus, one-night stay at the Chevy Chase, 4-H Center and breakfast there Saturday morning. You will need about $30 for lunch & dinner Friday the 17th, and lunch & dinner Saturday after the event. We will be visiting museums on Friday so students may wish to bring extra money for museum gifts.

Arrive promptly 6:45am on Friday morning, November 17th

Departure: Friday Nov. 17th, Minerva Street, DSA at exactly 7 am

Return: Saturday Nov. 18th, Minerva St., DSA at approximately 8:30pm

A more detailed itinerary will follow (along with other important information)

Fill out the attached permission slip form and return with your trip payment to your Visual Arts teacher. Seats are available on a first come first served basis and deposits are non-refundable. Please check SAT and personal calendars to make sure you have no conflicts.